

NIFA Coach of the Year Award

The National Intercollegiate Flying Association Coach of the Year Award is presented annually at the National SAFECON Banquet to the coach who exemplifies the standards and goals set forth in the purposes of NIFA. See NIFA By-Laws 0.2.

Qualifications and Procedures: The coach does NOT need to be from a team competing at the current National SAFECON. A team of judges will evaluate the written nomination letters. Candidates are scored on a 50 point scale.

Judging Criteria: In a letter, with separate paragraphs addressing the criteria, please tell us why your coach is deserving of this award. Some of the criteria to be addressed are:

- 1. Leadership, Inspiration, and Support of Flight Team, School and NIFA (15 pts)*
- 2. Professionalism (10 pts)*
- 3. Organization and Delegation of Team Responsibilities (10 pts)*
- 4. Professional Development and Instructional Skills (10 pts)*
- 5. History of SAFECON Excellence (5 pts)*

Deadline and Mailing: For those teams not attending National SAFECON, letters of nomination should be US Mail postmarked to NIFA Headquarters no later May 1, 2011.
